

PROF302: Conflict Management

4.2.07

Course Title: PROF302: Conflict Management

Course Length: 1 day

Instructional Methodology: Instructor-led

This class may be held in two-hour, half-day, or full-day segments and may be conducted at your location or on the UA campus. These classes are intended for the general public, but may also be customized for your company or organization based on specific training needs.

Course Description: This unit examines the concepts of analyzing, recognizing, and characterizing, and objectifying conflict. How to create and apply appropriate dispute resolution methodologies will be covered, as will approaches to a variety of conflicts and the subjective elements of conflict.

www.ceao.arizona.edu/comped

520.626.5091

Continuing Education and Academic Outreach